Canto European Partners Complete Roadshow

Armed with Cumulus 8 and supported by Canto, partner outreach a success.

BERLIN, 20 OCT 2009 — Canto® partners throughout Europe recently banded together to produce a roadshow that introduced customers and prospects to the Canto Cumulus 8 product line. Supported by key Canto personnel at every event, the show dates were a resounding success for partners.

Attendees saw demonstrations of the latest software from Canto and Canto developer partners, and they had the unique opportunity to spend time with Canto technical and marketing personnel, and even CEO Ulrich Knocke.

"Events like this offer us the perfect opportunity for in-person visits with the people using our software," explained Knocke. "Plus, it clearly demonstrates our partners' commitment to their customers and to Canto."

Among the partner participants was Christian Weymann from Interaktion (Switzerland), who explains why Canto's partner cooperation is an important asset to his prospects and customers.

"Our customers know we're committed to their needs, but when we combine forces with Canto for events like this, customers realize that commitment extends all the way back to Canto. That's very important for our combined customers to understand."

The roadshow visited seven cities, starting September 16 and ending October 9.
